How HIS LIFE WAS SAVED. JERSEY CITY, Oct. 9, 1887.

MR RIKER.

DEARNER: I wish to thank you for the great good I have received frem taking your Compound Sarraparilla. I can housely say that (indirectly) it has saven but live, for had it not been for that I feel sure that I could not have continued to carn a living for myself and family. I had been suffering for over five years with terrible pains in the head, which at times almost drove me crazy. For eighteen menths I suffered all the horrors of malaria, being confined to bed for weeks at a time; I could get no cure: docter after doctor tried in vain; quinine was useless; I got worse and worse; my handa, arma, head, &c., became a meas of sores, which would not heal up; my blood was indeed in a TERRIBLE CONDITION, and I had about lead me about your Compound Sarasancilla, and I cent to your ators for three bottles. I commenced taxing it at once; before I had taken the first bottle up I commenced to feel better, the sores began to heal over, my head let better, ane well, to make this long story short, the three bottles cure in a 1 sm as well to-day as I ever was in my life. I've never had headach cono lost a lay's work since. I've worked hard, all summer and never felt better. Yours gravefully and in health.

SHE MADE FUN OF HER TELEGRAPHIC PUPIL. Miss Esther Bailey, the president of the Western Union Telegraph Instruction Company, of New-York, who formeriy had an office at No. 5 East Fourteenth-st., now neriy had an office at No. o Fast Poursectains. In removed to No. 172 Sixth-ave., was again a defendant at Jefferson Market Court yesterday. Albert Zannatt, a German, of No. 184 Bleecker-at, read her advectisement and gave her $50 on January 20, for lessons in telegraphy. He was to be a perfect operator by May 5, when a position would be given to him. Zannatt claimed that he called at the instruction office to learn telegraphy, and said. "How could I learn when she always laughed and made fun of me!" Justice O'Reilly advised her to return the German half of the money, and requested Zannatt to call on him on Monday if she failed to do so.
